

---

European Conference on Local and Regional Energy Management Agencies 6 November 2001 in Brussels

---

Workshop 3 - Energy Efficiency in Transports

Chair: Mr. J-A VINOIS, Head of Unit for Transport and interoperability of Rail traffic, European Commission

Facilitator: Mr. Michele Macaluso, Director of A.N.E.A.

Workshop Conclusions

By Mr. Marcel Rommerts, Rapporteur of the Workshop, European Commission

Conclusions from workshop 3

Energy efficiency in transport

- Workshop addressed transport means, fuels and behavioural issues
- Integration of objectives - and how to achieve them
- Best practices
- The role of Agencies

Lessons from best practices

- Common objectives
- Integration of energy, transport and environment agenda's
- How?
  - Top down and bottom up actions
  - Address supply and demand side
  - Follow interdisciplinary approaches

Best practices

- Intelligent awareness campaign in Portugal
- positive incentives
- National framework agreements with economic sectors in the Netherlands
- Mobility Management Plans in Italy - the enabling role of the national government

The role of Agencies

- Information and best practice exchange - specific CEEC requirements
- Education of current and next generation citizens - awareness raising campaigns
- Building networks and partnerships - between government levels and between public and private sectors